Service for the Lord's Day
All Saints' Day
November 4, 2018

MAXWELL STREET CHANCEL CHOIR
DATE: 1943

All Saints' Day, November 1st, is a day of remembrance for the saints with the New Testament meaning of all Christian people of every time and place. As we worship this morning, we celebrate the communion of the saints as we remember the dead, both of the church universal and of our congregation.

PRELUDE      Andante Religioso      - Franz Liszt

PROCESSION

THE GREETING

Grace to you and peace from God
who is, and was, and is to come.
And from Jesus Christ,
the faithful witness, the first born of the dead,
and ruler of kings on earth.
The grace of the Lord Jesus be with all the saints. Amen.

+HYMN 35 ~ Praise Ye the Lord, the Almighty

WELCOME & PASSING OF THE PEACE

CHILDREN'S MESSAGE

SCRIPTURE READING: 1 Timothy 6.18-19

They are to do good, to be rich in good works, generous, and ready to share, thus storing up for themselves the treasure of a good foundation for the future, so that they may take hold of the life that really is life.

MINUTE FOR STEWARDSHIP

LIVE COURAGEOUSLY ~ Michael Morrill

INTRODUCTION TO REQUIEM & OPENING PRAYER

I. Requiem Aeternam      (Introit and Kyrie)

Grant them rest eternal, Lord our God, we pray to Thee: and light perpetual shine on them forever. Thou, Lord, art worshipped in Zion. Thy praises shall ever be sung in all Jerusalem. O hear us: O Lord, hear Thy faithful servants' prayer; to Thee shall all mortal flesh return. Lord have mercy. Christ have mercy. Lord have mercy.

III. PIE JESU      (From the Dies irae)

Blessed Lord Jesus, grant them rest, Rest eternal, grant them, Lord, Blessed Lord Jesus, grant them rest, Everlasting rest.

RECOGNITION OF THE SAINTS

Today we remember those who have died this past year, with thanksgiving for their lives and thankfulness to God for the gift of their resurrection to new life:

SILENT REMEMBRANCE

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE & THE LORD'S PRAYER (DEBTS/DEBTORS)

IV. SANCTUS (Preface to the Eucharistic Prayer)

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

V. AGNUS DEI (John 1.29)

Lamb of God, who takes away the sins of the world, grant them rest.

Lamb of God, who takes away the sins of the world, grant them rest.

Lamb of God, who takes away the sins of the world, grant them rest.

I am the resurrection and the life, saith the Lord; he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live; and whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die.

VI. THE LORD IS MY SHEPHERD (Psalms 23)

The Lord is my shepherd; therefore can I lack nothing. He shall feed me in a green pasture, and lead me forth beside the waters of comfort. He shall convert my soul, and bring me forth in the paths of righteousness, for his Name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; For thou art with me: Thy rod and thy staff comfort me. Thou shalt prepare a table before me against them that trouble me: thou has anointed my head with oil and my cup shall be full. But thy loving-kindness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

VII. LUX AETERNA (Revelation 14.13, 4 Esdras 2:35 & 34)

Let eternal light shine upon them, O Lord; with Thy saints in eternity, for Thou art merciful. Grant them eternal rest, O Lord, and may light perpetual shine on them.

As a sign of respect and as an act of worship, we politely ask that you hold your applause until following the postlude when there will be a moment in which we can express our deep appreciation for the hard work and dedication of our musicians.

STEWARDSHIP

- Offertory — Cherished Moments - Jon Schmidt
- Loren Tice, piano
- + Offertory Response (Hymn 607) — Praise God, from Whom All Blessings Flow

- J.S. Bach

Welcome to Worship

Welcome to Maxwell Street, a church known for its diversity, inclusion and mission. This is Christ's Church and all are welcome. Bring your burdens as well as your hopes. Bring your disappointments as well as your joys. There is a kind of space here into which all are invited to be themselves and to feel at home. Participate to the degree you feel comfortable. Here is some information to help make you feel at home.

- LARGE PRINT BIBLES are available from the ushers.
- LARGE PRINT BULLETINS are available from the ushers.
- Hearing help is available with a personal amplification device from the ushers.
- An elevator is located in the Education Building for your convenience.
- Visitors interested in learning more are invited to meet with a pastor or member of the Welcome Team in the Johnston Parlor after the service. We are glad you are here today.
- Children are welcome in worship. All children are encouraged to be in worship with their families so they may share in hymns, scripture, prayers, and other parts of worship. There is a booklet available in the narthex, in classrooms, and the lobby with details about our Children's classes and upcoming events. Below is a list of classes for children.

Infant to pre-K are welcome in the Nursery following Children's Moment or anytime during the morning. Come to the Young Children's Area in the basement. Professional caregivers and church volunteers will greet you there.

K - 5th grade after the children's message, children can go to our Sunday School program where age-appropriate activities will be available for all children ages k-5th grade.

Class: One Room Sunday School

- + Indicates that the congregation is invited to stand in body and/or in spirit.

Requiem - John Rutter (b. 1945)

The Requiem, completed in 1985, does not adhere strictly to the conventional Catholic liturgy, but combines texts from the Requiem Mass and the Book of Common Prayer. This is by no means unusual; Faure, Brahms and Durufle all followed their own individual preferences when selecting appropriate verses to set. As with the Requiems of both Fauré and Durufle, the Pie Jesu focuses on the soprano soloist, though in this case with the addition of a subdued choral commentary. The Sanctus and Benedictus are both followed by an exhilarating Hosanna.

In the Agnus Dei the Latin text alternates with verses from the Burial Sentences, taken from the 662 Book of Common Prayer. At this point Rutter inserts his superb setting of the 23rd Psalm, notable for its plaintive oboe solo, delicate orchestration and sensitivity to the text. This exquisite and moving piece, though composed some seven years earlier for Mel Olson's First United Methodist Church Choir in Omaha, was surely destined for this context, encapsulating as it does the work's message of reassurance. The last movement opens with another verse from the Burial Service, sung by the soprano soloist, which leads seamlessly into the Lux Aeterna, finally returning to the opening Requiem Aeterna theme for the peaceful conclusion.

A special thank you to soloists Mary Katherine Wright, soprano, and Allison Weitkamp, oboeist.

2018 ADVENT DEVOTIONAL Mary, Martha, Anna, and many others! This season of Advent, we'll be thinking about the women of the Christmas story. In keeping with this theme, we're inviting you to contribute short, meaningful memories of women from Christmas for this year's Advent Devotional. We're hoping to hear about the cookies you made, the carols you sang, the tree that you decorated with a pickle... simple memories become simple gifts for our congregation to meditate on during this season. These stories will be compiled, paired with scripture and prayer, and published as our devotional for this year. (We suggest 100 - 200 words, but feel free to be a little shorter/longer.) Please submit your stories to Kate at kate@maxpres.org by November 21st.

MISSION AT MAXWELL

5K FUNDRAISER Join us for the 35th Bluegrass Runners Thoroughbred Classic 5k on Thanksgiving Day, Thursday, November 22, 9am at Keeneland. E7 Kids' Cafe is one of the charities that will benefit from this event. If you do not want to run or walk, we also need a few more volunteers to sign up to work on race day. If you do sign up to volunteer, please let Shelli know, so E7 receives credit for your time.

RANDOM ACTS OF KINDNESS

Room In the Inn and Shelli are in need of toiletries (including travelsize shaving cream, razors, dental products, deodorant, mini-kleenex, and hand warmers), household cleaners, laundry detergent, and paper products

SOCIAL JUSTICE COMMITTEE CALLS YOU TO VOTE

BUILD On Monday November 5, BUILD will convene this year's Community Problems Assembly at Consolidated Baptist Church, 1625 Russell Cave Road in Lexington at 6:30 PM. Please join our Maxwell Social Justice Ministry Network to vote on our top priority for BUILD's work in the coming year: Education and Youth; Healthcare; or Mental Health Care. Each one of us who shows up from Maxwell will have one vote, so we want a crowd. We will caucus as a group to cast our ballots and they will all go into the evening's compilation of all the churches top ranking subject area for the one topic to guide BUILD's work in the coming year.

And Tuesday is election day. Vote for those you believe will further the cause of justice to help make our communities better places to live for all of our people!

THE FRIENDSHIP BOOK can be found at the end of each pew. Please take the time to fill in your name, address, and phone. On the space at the end of the line, please be sure to sign up for any of the following, using more than one line if needed.
